

DREAMWEEK

SAN ANTONIO, TX / JAN 5-20, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 20, 2017

RECORD LINEUP OF EVENTS ANTICIPATED FOR DREAMWEEK 2018 ORGANIZERS EXPECT OVER 200 EVENTS FOR UPCOMING SUMMIT

(SAN ANTONIO, Texas) The annual DreamWeek Summit will return to San Antonio for its sixth consecutive year in January 2018 with an expected lineup of more than 200 events. The summit comprises 16 days of symposiums, panel discussions, performances, and more, all designed to inspire discourse on civil issues relating to tolerance, equality, and diversity.

DreamWeek 2018 will kick off with the Opening Breakfast Ceremony on Friday, January 5. The summit will conclude on Saturday, January 20 with the Inaugural Mayor's Ball, which will feature performances by the city's top performance artists and entertainers presented by DreamVoice and selected by Mayor Ron Nirenberg.

With over 250 event applications received as of October 1, organizers of the summit expect participation to increase significantly from the previous year total of 165 events hosted by 150 partners. Over 100 submissions have already been approved for 2018 with the remaining balance still in process.

The 2018 summit lineup includes events from a growing roster of partner organizations. New partners include the American Civil Liberties Union, American Red Cross, Healy-Murphy Center, and Linda Pace Foundation. Many partners, such as SA2020, San Antonio for Growth on the Eastside (SAGE), the San Antonio Public Library, and the DoSeum, are returning as seasoned hosts.

Businesses and organizations interested in participating in DreamWeek can still submit an application to host an event at the summit. Applications must be submitted by November 5, 2017. Apply online at dreamweek.org/partner.
